

South Bay Quilters Guild

Volume XXXV, No. 1, Established 1979

Meeting: No Meeting in July

July 2013

President's Corner – Nancy Jengo

What a great year we just completed and I am excited about starting a second term as your President. Thank you for the case of beautiful batik fat quarters. I have been having a great time going through them. Lots of batik quilts on my horizon.

We almost have a full Board and I am again thankful to all of you who are participating in the workings of the Guild.

July is our dark month meaning there is NO Guild meeting. This gives us lots of time to work on our quilts for our quilt show as well go to the final Long Beach International Quilt Festival. We will view the amazing quilts and replenish our stashes with purchases from the many, many vendors.

Have a fun and productive July and I will see you in August.
Nancy

Programs – Stephania Bommarito and Jonelle Catalano

Beginning with our new calendar, our first speaker is Helen Frost. Her lecture is entitled "The Quilter's Magic Show: Lots of Tricks for Better Quilts." Helen Frost, a world famous seasoned quilter and amateur magician will answer the question... "Is perfect patchwork an illusion?" Helen will expand your quilter's bag of tricks with secrets about precise cutting, pressing, flat borders, and perfect bindings. Then decide for yourself if Helen is more of an expert quilter or magician.

The August 21 workshop is "Beautiful Bindings". Come learn how to achieve smooth bindings with perfect corners and flawless joining ends. Practice sewing angled and scalloped edges along with 'gourmet' bindings, such as two-color and faux piping. During the class, you will bind small pieces of pre-quilted fabric to put into a "binding" binder, a portfolio of sample bindings that you can refer to again and again. The kit includes all quilted fabrics and bindings. A kit fee of $10 will be collected when you sign up.

September speaker – Phyllis Binkley

“How to Show Space and Create Depth in Quilts” Phyllis Binkley has been creating landscape quilts for over ten years. By using free motion machine stitching, thread painting, and hand embroidery she is able to enhance her collages with stitches and details of all kinds. During the trunk show, she will share her knowledge of how to create a landscape that invites you into the scene by employing artistic techniques that give the illusion of space and depth.

The September 18 workshop is ‘Building a Landscape’. Beginning with Phyllis’s hand-dyed fabrics and her 30 years of experience as an art teacher, you will create your own landscape. Foundation, backing, batting, and binding fabrics will be provided. Plus, a heat-bond will already be attached to the fabrics so they will be ready to be cut and composed. A materials fee of $45 will be collected with the class fee. A preview of landscape ideas can be found at www.LandscapeArtQuilt.com.

Call or email Stephanie Bommarito if you are interested in attending the workshops.

Quilts for Wounded Warriors – Arlene Zobrist

This quilt and the one made by Serene Ductor that was shown at our last meeting are both on the way to Bagram as I write this, and will be there before you read this – thanks to guild member Helen Lu. Helen has arranged for DHL to donate shipment of these quilts to our warriors at the Bagram hospital, and the speed of delivery is incredible – the last shipment left LAX on a Saturday night and on the following Monday we had an email from our contact that he already had the quilts -- just 3 days to the other side of the world! I can’t thank you enough for this wonderful support, and the stories and Thank You notes from our warriors bring tears.

Thanks to a Guild donation, we now have both batting and some backing for warrior quilts, plus many donations of fabric. I would like to personally thank our Guild’s leaders for their strong support of this program, including those who donate their long-arm services.

Many thanks to all!

Requirements:

Size: 48" by 78" (stretcher size) All cotton (including batting, 80/20 acceptable)

Appropriate patriotic theme/design

Optional: Pillowcase, 20"x30", coordinating fabric

Philanthropy

A vote of the attending members at the June meeting designated the following contributions. Auxiliary of the Little Sisters of the Poor, $2,000. Delhaven Community Center, $1,500. Breast Cancer Angels, $1,500.

Sunshine and Shadows

Get well wishes go to Sharon Amos, who is recovering from knee surgery.

Congratulations to Helen Lu on the marriage of her daughter.

It is with great sadness that I report the passing of Margaret Williams on July 1.

Comfort Project – Mary Shadbourne

When you last saw me, at the June meeting, I was speechless. Lifetime membership status was never in my sights—not even remotely. As a matter of fact, when Stephania took the stage to announce this year's recipient, I headed straight for the dessert bar at the back of the room. As I stood over the desserts, contemplating my many options, I heard snatches of the announcement: "...quilts," then "...small quilts," and finally "...thousands of quilts," and it dawned on me that I had to make my way to the front of the room and still remain upright. I was truly flabbergasted—and still am.

Now, the speechless stage has passed, and, to my surprise, has given way to a weepy stage. I don't know how long this phase will last, but it doesn't look like it will end any time soon. Every time I look at my beautiful plaque, I'm overwhelmed at what an honor this unexpected award represents and I well up once again.

I love our guild and the work we all do, and I especially love my job within the guild. This last year we added 681 quilts to the thousands we've already produced. What a team!

As previously announced, there will be no sweatshops in July and August. Next scheduled sweatshop will be the second Tuesday in September; however, we will be scheduling Posse Parties throughout the summer. Be on the lookout for those notifications starting mid-July. If you're not signed up for Posse notifications, send me an email mshadbourne@socal.rr.com and I'll add you to the list.

June's silent auction, a collection of vintage "Umbrella Girl" blocks, was won by Lucia Petrarca. Random silent auctions will resume in August or September.

Quilt Show 2014 – Alex Tsubota and Pam Overton

We're off to a good start in planning the 2014 quilt show. Thank you to those that stepped up to join the committee. We do still have one opening left – inside signs. Can you help? Please contact Alex or Pam.

Opportunity Quilt. The quilt is back and already out and about. Hope you had a chance to see it at the May meeting. It will be on display at the Long Beach International Quilt Festival on Saturday, August 3. Many thanks to those of you that signed up to white glove and/or sell tickets. We have all the slots filled!

Staffing. At the committee meeting in May we had a lengthy discussion about staffing our show. We've been operating with the same number of shifts needed for many years now. When we counted the shifts that we needed to fill at the 2013 show it was well over 500 hours! Once upon a time we had members to work those hours. That's longer the case! Our membership today is the 165 range. Clearly we need to rethink the staffing.

We took a careful look at all of the jobs for show and have pared back in a number of areas. In addition, we know that some of you are not able to work the weekend of the show and so we are trying to identify things that you can help with during the time leading up to the show.

Our publicity chair, Kay Salm will be looking for a stamping and labeling crew. Stephania is responsible for getting the opportunity quilt out and about and will need a number of people helping with that. These jobs and others are things that can be done prior to the show and will count toward your 3-hour obligation to "work the show".

Auction Quilts and Raffle Baskets.

How are your auction quilts coming? Have you "cleaned" your sewing room yet looking for donations for the raffle baskets. Julie Limbach-Jones and Nancy Jengo will be happy to accept your auction quilts at the August meeting. Janet Coggins will be collecting raffle basket donations!

2014 Wish Upon a Star Quilt Show Challenge

. We hope the challenge this year will excite you and we'll see lots of challenge quilts at the show. We've settled on a fixed size interpreting the quilt show title- Wish Upon a Star. The quilts to be 15 inches (note that we've modified the width based on several requests) wide by 36 inches long and should hang vertically. We think this will display really well with them all hanging together. Some ideas- a quilt 'starring' your favorite child, that space quilt you've always wanted to make, or some pieced stars in your favorite colors that can function as a table-runner after the show. Get those ideas going and let's have some fun! Just think, your quilt sleeve will be really short! ☺

Library

Welcome to our Library! Our library is an important resource. It has been books covering many quilting topics. Please come by the Library Table at the August meeting and "check us out".

Read Me A Quilt

I would like to give many thanks to the ladies who made charming quilts last month. Thank you to Pam Overton who made 5 receiving blankets, Nadine Kirk made 2 quilts, as did Pat Bryan, and thanks to Shirley Klein,, Jane Pavlina and Judy LaCoss for each making a quilt.

Since July is a dark month, one without a meeting, why don't you get together with some of your friends and make quilts for children in CASA? It is a win win situation, the children get quilts and the guild member gets the satisfaction of doing something special for a child.

Thanks again for all of the lovely quilts you make for foster children.

Julie Maas

Scrap Bag

My neighbor is looking for someone who can make 2 quilts from t-shirts that used to be her sons' She is willing to pay a reasonable amount to have them made. If you are interested in making these quilts, please contact me.
