

South Bay Quilters Guild

Volume XXXV, No. 4 , Established 1979

Meeting: Tuesday, October 15 -

Doors open at 6:00 pm; Meeting begins at 7:00 pm

October 2013

President's Corner - Nancy Jengo

It is FALL, although our weather doesn't know it. I love Fall. It is the only time when you can successfully combine red, purple, brown, green, yellow and orange fabrics and have a happy outcome. Plus you can display your Fall quilts for TWO whole months. Love it.

Guild meetings are getting busier. Quilt Show 2014 is in full planning mode. Be sure to bring your finished quilt tops to acquisition with entry forms for a picture, pick up your opportunity quilt tickets, sign up for shifts for working at the show, turn in your auction quilts plus lots more. See Alex and Pam's article for all the details.

Through our website a group in Ohio supported our Wounded Warrior project by making 40 quilts!! For more information be sure to read Arlene's article further in this newsletter. It is so wonderful that someone read about Wounded Warriors on our website, got a group of people excited about our project and did something to help out. It is fantastic to know people from all over are reading about our wonderful, active guild and are being inspired by us.

See you at the guild meeting. Come up and say "Hi".

Nancy

Programs /Workshops Stephania Bommarito & Jo Catalano

October speaker - Judy Sisneros "Stitches of Hope - Cambodia"

In 2009, Judy Sisneros went to Cambodia with her friend Susie Ernst to teach hand-quilting to young girls rescued from the sex slave trade. This was both the most difficult and most rewarding thing she had ever done. Girls ranged in age from 7 to about 18. They learned to hand-quilt motifs on beautiful Cambodian silk pillows (which they made). They have made over 1,000 of these pillows and are now working to make jewelry and garments. The lecture includes photos from a visit to a silk farm. Although the story is difficult, It is a fascinating heart-warming story filled with inspiration.

Would you like to join us for dinner with our speaker, Judy Sisneros at the Good Stuff Restaurant in Riviera Village at 5:00pm before the guild meeting? Contact Stephania Bommarito to let her know your plan to join us, It is always fun to get to know the speaker! (continued on page 3)

The October 16 Workshop is "Circle Pizzazz – Easy Curves & Endless Possibilities". The inspiration for this class began with the 'snake trail' block, which Judy taught for years as "Winding Paths" - a great design. She wondered what would happen if she made the block and then re-cut it, made a little change, and then remade the block. It was wonderful! Plus, with the 'planned-overs' she had pieces to make a second quilt. Join us for a day of playing with circles and ways to color them to create a unique quilt. Templates are available for purchase- $20. Discover the possibilities at her website: judysisneros.com or check out the book Circle Pizzazz.

November speaker – Pixeladies (Deb Cashatt & Kris Sazaki)

"Furoshiki: Fun with Fabric Folding"

With all that fabric in your stash, don't you wish you could do something else with it instead of sew, sew, sew? Learn how to take a square of fabric and wrap bottles, boxes, books, and more! We'll also transform that square of fabric into a couple of bags. The Japanese call it furoshiki we call it fun! The Pixeladies are artists who love to tell stories in cloth.

The November 20 workshop is "Batik Watercolor Quilts Workshop". The Pixeladies have come up with a simple method of creating watercolor quilts with batik fabrics that will allow you to focus on the technique of moving from one color to another. Raw edges give these watercolor quilts a modern twist. In this workshop you will create a 20" x 20" quilt made of 2½" batik squares, which are included in your kit fee (a wide variety of colors will be available). This workshop is designed for all levels of sewers. The $20 kit fee includes pre-cut & pre-fused squares. The next step is to enjoy interacting with color in order to fabricate your own masterpiece with very little fuss and sewing.

Call or email Stephania Bommarito if you are interested in attending the workshops.

Sunshine and Shadows

Grace Brumbelow, a member until last year, passed away Sept. 21.

Janet Coggins is moving to Texas maybe in the second week of October. Sorry to see her go.

Wounded Warriors – Arlene Zobrist

A big shout-out this month to the Defiance County Fair in Ohio for displaying their very generous donation of 40+ Quilts for Wounded Warriors in the rafters at their recent County Fair! A special thanks to John Fifer Jr, President, for choosing to support our project this year (last year was for Purple Heart veterans).

They advertised it in their local newspapers months before the Fair to allow time for making the quilts. This photo shows just a few of the beautiful quilts that were given a place of honor, and I'm sure it was no easy job to hang them from the rafters. We are currently in the process of working the logistics with John, so our Guild member Helen Lu can work her magic with DHL Express to pick up and deliver this wonderful donation. Our deepest appreciation to these true patriots in Defiance, Ohio for partnering with us in supporting our wounded warriors in Afghanistan!

The warrior quilts turned in at Guild in September were received at our Afghanistan hospital a few days later (Helen sent them the next day). We received a thank you note/email from our contact at the Bagram hospital, who passed them on to their Intermediate Care Ward – so they were put to immediate use. This box of 7 quilts included some that were not shown at Guild, so I'll include photos of them in future Newsletters. Many thanks to all for your efforts in showing our injured troops that we care.

All cotton (including batting, 80/20 acceptable)

Appropriate patriotic theme/design

Optional: Pillowcase, 20"x30", coordinating fabric

Quilt Show – Alex Tsubota and Pam Overton

February will be here before we know it! Are you busy working on your entries, auction quilt, challenge quilt? We have 10 quilts donated to date.

Only 40 more to go to meet our 50-quilt goal. Have you thought about partnering with others to create an auction quilt? Pool your talents to create an awesome quilt to help raise funds for the guild.

Do you have family or friends that might like to join us for the auction on Sunday to purchase a quilt? Be sure to pick up some quilt show bookmarks to pass along to them. The bigger the bidding crowd we have the more fun we have! and the more funds we raise!

Special Exhibit- We have some exciting news! We have made arrangements to display the Keepsake Quilting Challenge Quilt winners at our show in 2014. This will be an exhibition of the first and second place winners from the past 10 years.

Open Positions- Due to extenuating circumstances, we're looking for volunteers to step in to chair or serve on the Raffle Basket or Community Outreach committees. Can you help? Please see Pam or Alex if you can help out.

Vendors - If you have suggestions for vendors at our show, please send them to Eva. We still have 7 openings and they don't have to be directly quilt-related. Art supplies, beads, food specialty would all be appropriate.

Raffle Baskets - Thank you for all the donations thus far. We have lots of notions, pattern and gift items. At this point, we could really use some additional fabric donations.

Acquisitions - Quilt show applications are now being accepted both online and via paper submission. If possible, we'd really appreciate using the online submission. The address for the application is - <http://tinyurl.com/l66j22w>. Don't forget to send your images to sbqqquiltshowentry@gmail.com

Challenge Quilts - we'd really love to see many entries for this. You'll need to submit the same application and select 'challenge quilt'.

Staffing - The sign-up sheets will be at the meeting in October. We've already filled a number of positions but there are openings yet to fill. If you would like a specific staffing job or a sitting job, please visit Sue Glass at the staffing table in October. The sitting positions go quickly. Please remember, to fully staff the show, each member must work at least three hours. If you're available and willing to work more hours, all the better!

Pins - Diane Miller will have the pins at the guild meeting. The design this year is exceptional. You'll definitely want one for your collection.

Opportunity Quilt. The quilt has been out and about to many shows and guild meetings - South Coast Botanic Garden and Conejo Valley shows. We're doing well in selling tickets and promoting our show. We have a number of events/guild meetings coming up. Can you help? Please contact Stephania.

Opportunity Quilt Tickets - Mary McHale will have the ticket packets available at the meeting. Please stop by to pick yours up. Remember, the guild does ask that each member purchase/sell at least 24 tickets. If you would like additional tickets to sell at work or ??, please ask Mary for additional tickets.

Next quilt show meeting will be October 22nd at Hamilton Adult School.

Don't miss October's Mystery Quilter! You'll recognize her fine machine quilting, but you may be surprised at her multifaceted life. She has been a member of the South Bay Quilters Guild since 2010 and has generously supported our guild through her expert quilting of our Opportunity Quilt. Her energy and enthusiasm are contagious. Come in October and discover the identity of our Mystery Quilter!

NOTE: We'd love to hear the story of your quilt journey and see your quilts. Your presentation need not be formal - a ten minute informal talk is perfect. Please contact me, Peggie Wormington by phone or email if you would like to be our Patchwork Star!

Travel - Sue Glass

Guild bus for Road to California

Hi everyone, You are invited to sign up for the Guild bus to Road to California on January 25, 2014. Here are reasons why you need to be on the guild bus (besides the fact that it will be much more fun than driving by yourself):

1. Ticket price: Buy it yourself at the door and you pay $15.00. Get it with the bus trip and you pay $10.00 (included in your fee).
2. Parking: Drive yourself and pay $9.00. Ride the bus and pay nothing for parking.
3. Driving: Drive yourself and not only do you have to get there, you have to get home when you are tired and worn out from shopping! Plus there's all that gas money!

The bus will depart the Redondo Beach Green Line Park and Ride at 8 a.m., arriving about the time the show opens at 9. We will depart the show between 3:30 and 4 p.m., arriving back at Redondo Beach about 5. We have increased the amount of time for the bus trip this year so that those who want to do a shift of white glove to help with our opportunity quilt can do so and still have time to see the show and shop. The fee for taking the guild bus will be $42.00 per person for guild members (any quilt guild), $47 for nonguild members. Your fee includes entry to the show, the show brochure, travel in our restroom equipped, air conditioned coach, refreshments on the bus, and the tip for the driver. There might even be some door prizes, you never know. Your entry wristband is good for Sunday as well, so should you be so foolish as to choose to go back, you will get in for free.

Signup begins with the September guild meeting and continues until at least the second week in January unless we fill up the bus before then. Come see me at guild, call me at 310-372-3945, or e-mail me at sue.glass@verizon.net.

See you at Guild

It's a great pleasure to welcome three new members, Susan Mallin, Mary Montgomery, and Karin Cooper. Be sure to look for these ladies at our next meeting and introduce yourselves.

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL TIME! DON'T FORGET!

Thanks to all of you who have completed your renewals. Membership renewals are due in September and cover the period from September 1, 2013 through August 31, 2014. A renewal form is included in this newsletter. You can also find the form on our website in the "members only" section under "forms," and we will have a supply of printed forms at the October meeting. After November 1, 2013, a late renewal charge of $5.00 will apply.

NEW 2013-2014 BADGES

For all who have renewed (and new members) your new badges will be available at the October meeting. If you can re-use your badge holder, that would be great. If you need a new holder we will have plenty available. If you haven't renewed yet, badges will not be printed until a few days ahead of the meeting so there's plenty of time to mail in your form.

If you fill up your car with three or more (including yourself) everyone in your group will receive three drawing tickets each and we might just throw in an extra prize to improve your chances

Looking forward to greeting everyone at the October 15 Guild meeting.

Intra-Guild - Sharon Amos & Karen Yarrow

The "Quilter's Garden Sampler is going strong. The block for October is Block 4 - Cactus Flower. It has a lot of rectangles that come together rather quickly. Have fun and enjoy. We will continue to supply a quilt block pattern with directions each month and show samples of the block. Stop by the Intra-Guild table and pick up yours. The block pattern and directions will also be available on the Guild website.

Now is the time to come by and pick up a Christmas stocking pattern. We will have some fabric from Community Services that you can use to make your one-of-a-kind stocking. The pattern is also available online at the Guild website. Have some extra toiletries? Just drop off whatever you can.

Holiday Dinner - Joann Kennelly

It may seem a bit early to talk about the holiday dinner but the holidays are soon upon us. Each holiday season our guild gets together to eat a delicious turkey dinner, be serenaded by good music, enjoy each other's company and work on our community service project by tying off some quilts. The dinner this year will be in lieu of our regular December meeting, which is December 10. Please plan on joining us. The cost is $17.00. You may sign up and pay at the October or November meeting or call Joann at 310-902-3959. You may mail her the check if you need to at 1338 W. 159th St., Gardena, Ca. 90247. The deadline for sign ups is December 1. Thanks! Am looking forward to seeing you there.

Read Me A Quilt

Thank you ladies for all of the hard work you put into making quilts for CASA. One girl whose baby received a quilt this past month could not believe that her child was getting something NEW, not anything that had been passed down. The CASA volunteer was brought to tears by this young lady's appreciation of the gift of a quilt and book.

Quilts and receiving blankets were made by Janet Coggins (2), Trudy Ooms (2), Joyce Sherifi, Jane Pavlina, Charmain Doty, and Barbara Beer.

By the way, if you have any donated fabric that you have taken to make quilts, please do make the quilts out of that fabric and turn in the completed quilts.

Keep up the good work.

Community Service/Comfort Project - Mary Shadbourne

An industrious collection of sweatshop participants gathered at Levy School in September to kick off this year's Comfort Quilt production. Let's do it again the second Tuesday, October 8, 2013. We're now assigned to room 11, on the southwest corner of the main building, one wing over from our previous location. Join us at Levy Adult School, 3420 West 229th Street, Torrance.

If you're new to the guild (or just new to sweatshops), all you need to bring is yourself. If you don't mind dragging your sewing machine along, we'll be forever grateful. If that's too much of a hassle, leave it at home and bring your favorite shears. If you come empty-handed, no worries-- you'll have your choice of several pairs of scissors we keep on hand.

Two current silent auctions will end in October, at the end of the break at the regular meeting. If you're unable to attend the meeting, but want to bid on the growing stack of Asian fabric, or the antique New Home treadle machine, tell a friend how much you're willing to bid and they can submit your bid for you. The fabric is currently going for $90.00 and high bid on the treadle machine is $40.00. Delivery to your home is included with the treadle machine. Good luck!

One, possibly two new auctions will be introduced at the October meeting. Come on down!

Hospitality - Sandy Warren

Refreshments will be served at our Guild meeting. If your last name begins with U, V, W, X or Y please plan to bring snacks for 15-20 people. Thank you.

Library

We have many wonderful books about quilting in our guild library. Please look at the catalog list on-line and choose some books you would like to read. Just make a note of the numbers and e-mail me or talk to me at the next meeting. I will bring them for you.

Visit the library table. I try to bring some interesting or new books to check out each month. There are also some books for sale and sometimes there is a raffle!

Attention Please

Our guild is comprised of talented people and we are fortunate that many of them teach classes to share their expertise. There are only two approved ways of letting other guild members know about your classes at guild meetings: 1) place an ad in our monthly newsletter or 2) create a flyer and place it on the publicity table (located right next to the membership table at Guild meetings). Teachers who are not SBQG members may also advertise their classes in either of these ways as well. Thank you for following these guidelines.
