February 2016

President's Corner - Mary Shadbourn & Pat Bryan

It sure seems like the holidays are barely past and it's already February! What happened to January?

Our biggest event of the year – our annual Quilt Show – is coming up in just two weeks on February 13 & 14. I know many of us are busily working on our entries, finishing up details, binding or sewing the hanging sleeve. We can't wait to see all your beautiful work. You never disappoint!

Take a short break from your quilt work and read through this newsletter to learn more about all the other things happening this month. If you haven't discovered why you need a Mason jar – you haven't read far enough. There are also some beautiful items in this month's silent auction. Check them out on the website and be ready to bid.

Hope to see everyone at the Quilt Show and see you at the Guild meeting on February 16.

Programs / Workshops - Gina Shankle & Stephania Bommarito

Although the creative and artistic capabilities of our guild members are absolutely AMAZING (as evidenced, once again, by the beautiful quilts in our fast-approaching Quilt Show), we should all constantly challenge ourselves to continue growing as quilters. Take a few minutes to look at your recently completed quilts and ask yourself what the new techniques were that you used in those quilts. Do you need to continue practicing any of those techniques? Was there some aspect of the quilting process that you avoided because you weren't sure how to do it? For each of us to continue improving and developing our skills, we need to try new techniques or improved ways of mastering basic quilting methods. The goal of our guild is to help our members blossom by inspiring them to try something new, so please check out our upcoming workshops and sign up for one (or more) that sparks your interest. The quilt making journey is different for everyone and we'd love to help you on your way!

➤ Please stop by the Workshop Table, now located next to the Membership Table, at an upcoming guild meeting to familiarize yourself with the wide variety of speakers and workshops being offered this year. These workshops will provide many techniques, tricks, and tips to advance your quilting abilities. The workshops are held at AAA Fabric & Sewing Center in Lomita from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and a new added feature is that you can now pay for the workshops with your credit card (Visa or MasterCard only). Please contact Stephania Bommarito (310-503-7989, quiltwizard1024@gmail.com) if you are interested in attending the workshops or Gina Shankle (951-847-1840, indyjo@sbcglobal.net) with any recommendations or ideas for speakers or workshops.

◆◆◆ Upcoming Speakers and Workshops

► Dinner with the Speaker. All guild members are invited to join us for dinner with the speaker at 4:45 pm on the night of our guild meetings. We meet (and eat) at Good Stuff located at Ave I and PCH in the beginning of the Hollywood Rivera in south Redondo Beach. If you do plan on joining us, please let us know so we can reserve ample seating.

► February 16 2016 – Debbie Gordon – Tools of the Trade

Fabric, thread, scissors, needles, thimbles and sewing machines. All of these are 'Tools of the Trade' for those of us who quilt and sew and, although they are all readily available and in abundance today, this wasn't always the case. Debbie will provide insight into their histories as she walks us through their beginnings and development, while also providing a sprinkling of anecdotes associated with each of these modern day treasures.

► February 17, 2016 Workshop – Debbie Gordon – English Paper Piecing Sampler

Create a masterpiece using shapes other than squares, triangles or strips and be absolutely precise without stress! Learn the time-tested technique of English Paper Piecing and begin a treasured quilt. Debbie will share examples of different shapes that are appropriate for this technique while also providing historical notes as well as modern and antique examples. Discover how to select and cut appropriate fabrics and create different illusions with your fabric choices.

► Additional information on Debbie Gordon can be found at her website

(<http://www.debbiegordondesigns.com>).

Note: This workshop is almost full, so please contact Stephania as soon as possible if you are interested in taking the class.

► April 19, 2016 – Stephania Bommarito – Playground of Squares and Rectangles

Step into the quilting universe where only squares and rectangles reside and discover how they can unite to become an original block. Since color is their best friend, how it's used within the block and throughout the quilt has a profound effect on the look of the overall quilt. However, the best part is how the blocks come together to generate a new setting for each quilt. The possibilities are endless!

► April 20, 2016 Workshop – Stephania Bommarito – Build a Block with Squares and Rectangles

Spend a day playing with just squares and rectangles. Build your own block using plastic templates (rather than with pencil and graph paper) while also exploring possible fabric and color opportunities both within the block and the whole quilt.

Finally, consider settings for the set of blocks that will produce your own sensational and unique quilt. Piecing techniques will also be discussed. This is an easy, fun class to discover how creative you can be with simple squares and rectangles.

► May 17, 2016 – Kathy McNeil – Tips, Tricks and Stories

Kathy McNeil is an international, award-winning quilt artist, teacher and author. Her hand appliquéd pictorial quilts are filled with small details and surprises for viewers to find. In this lecture Kathy will share 15 years of award winning tips and a couple of near disasters with you. The inspiration and stories behind her quilts will make you laugh and cry. This lecture combines ingenuity and lots of educational tips to help build confidence in your own creative process.

► May 18, 2016 Workshop – Kathy McNeil – Animal Boutique

Fast, fun, fusible and "oh so beautiful." Choose from several animal favorites including birds, bears, and otters. Learn the steps of layered appliqué, shading and dimension created with value and contrast. The workshop will finish with a discussion on how to quilt the pictorial quilt and Kathy will demonstrate her fabric paint crayons to add lovely hints of shading. Check out Kathy's website at www.kathymcneilquilts.com/workshop-info.htm to decide which pattern you would like to create.

Quilt Show - Sue Glass

“Celebrating the Red, White, and Blue!”

February Quilt Show News February 12 (setup), 13-14 (Show)

Congratulations to the winner of the “Hearts” Challenge:

- First Place – Julie Limbach-Jones
- Second Place – Elaine Scheier
- Third Place – Pat Bryan

All of the entries were just beautiful, and we are excited to see them displayed at our show.

Everyone who entered a quilt in the show should have gotten a letter from show acquisitions with information about sleeves, labels, etc. If you didn’t get one, please contact Melanie Dreike immediately.

Staffing reminder letters were provided to everyone who signed up to work at the show. Please let Sue Glass know right away if you didn’t get a letter, or if you think your work assignment is incorrect. Remember we ask that every member contribute 3 hours at the quilt show in some capacity.

The KEEPSAKE QUILTING CHALLENGE quilts should be here soon, and we are excited to get them out of their trunk to see what is there.

Our SUNDAY QUILT EXHIBIT this year will be antique red/white and blue/white quilts. These quilts will be on display Sunday afternoon only, so tell your friends! These beautiful quilts are not usually shown, and will be a wonderful addition to our show.

Thanks to everyone who worked at Road to California in support of our Opportunity Quilt. The guild really appreciates your effort!

Don’t forget to mail or take your OPPORTUNITY QUILT TICKETS stubs and cash/checks to Nancy Jengo before the show. She would also like any unsold tickets so that we can sell them at the show.

Marie Cortez has ADVANCE ADMISSION TICKETS for the show ($8) until February 6 only.

Show pins will be available at the show in the entrance area.

Call Sue Glass with questions – 310-372-3945, or email sue.glass@verizon.net.

Membership - Kay Salm & Linda Chow

Welcome to new and/or returning members Jeannette Bryant, Britta Latto and Patti Richmond. We're very glad you've joined our guild. Did you know? We have 146 regular, and 13 newsletter-only members. Don't forget to gently encourage your friends to join our guild. Ask them to accompany you to one of our monthly meetings and take them around to all the tables showcasing our activities.

If you didn't pick up your new name badge or membership directory at a meeting yet, we still have them available. Just pick them up at the membership sign-in table as you enter. And, remember to wear your name badge! If you need a plastic badge holder, we have them available.

Please check your information in the directory and let us know if we need to make a correction. As always, let us know if any of your information changes through the year so that we can keep our membership information up-to-date.

See you at the February meeting!

Wounded Warriors - Arlene Zobrist

This month I'll keep it short to allow space for two pictures we got from Afghanistan. The top photo shows the entire staff of the 455th Expeditionary Medical Group at the Craig Joint Theater Hospital in Bagram. As you see, it's a large staff (males & females). They provide topnotch care for not only our U.S. troops but also coalition contractors, plus some combat injured Afghan patients. The bottom photo shows a soldier receiving one of our quilts, and this one was made by our sister guild of Crazy Quilters in Laguna Woods – thanks again for the support!

Requirements:

Size: 48" by 78" (stretcher size)

All cotton (including batting, 80/20 acceptable)

Appropriate patriotic theme/design

Optional: Pillowcase, 20"x30", coordinating fabric

Read Me A Quilt - Julie Maas

We collected 13 quilts for CASA and 2 receiving blankets at our last meeting. What a pleasure! Each one is unique.

Thank you Nadine for five quilts and two blankets, Pat Bryan two quilts, Trudy Ooms two quilts, Barbara Beer two quilts, and Karen Rakita one quilt.

I will see you at the quilt show. Notebooks and quilts will be shown at our booth. Thank you.

Library - Joanne Stine

Thanks to all for helping the SBQG Library with the "Buck-a-Book" sales. We plan on reinvesting the proceeds to make our library more relevant and accessible to our members. Stop by the Library table in February, and check out our selection of videos for inspiration on your next project or to learn new skills and techniques. We may also have some books for purchase left over from the quilt show.

The annual Meet the Teachers event will be held on April 9, from 9:30 to 2:30 at the Carson Community Center, 801 E. Carson Street, Carson. This event is hosted by the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds and is an opportunity to see many National quilting and fabric art teachers. You can even be a part of the selection process for our Guild's speakers and teachers! We WILL NEED VOLUNTEERS to work at the event---setting up in the morning, sitting at teachers' tables during their presentations, and general support of the teachers during the day. Please call Karen Rakita (310-292-0186) if you can help out. It will be a fun day!

Hospitality - Andrea Mc Cowan

Refreshments will be served at our Guild meeting. If your last name begins with I, J, K, or L, please plan to bring snacks for 15-20 people. Thank you.

Patchwork Star - Mary Ann Sereth

The Patchwork Star for February is Jo Catalano. In 1990 Jo opened a deli in Santa Clarita and right next door a new quilt shop was opened. The name of the shop was "My Next Quilt". The owner came into the deli often and they got acquainted. When Jo asked the owner what the name of her shop meant, she replied, "You're not a quilter, are you?" We know what that means! Joe went to the shop when she could and started looking at fabric and patterns. She started, as many of us have with hand applique and hand quilting. She enjoyed this process and made some quilts we will see at our meeting.

After 9/11 Jo stopped making quilts for some time. She returned about 5 or 6 years ago, and re-joined our guild and is back into it again-this time using her machine. She likes many kinds of styles and many have flowers. She still does some applique also. Jo currently is co-chair on programs with Stephania. We look forward to seeing her quilts.

Intra-Guild - Julie Limbach-Jones and Rain Burch

This month we'll have a Secret Valentine exchange of a "gift in a mason jar". Be creative and show what you love! Use any size mason jar. Some ideas: food gift (homemade treats or mixes), spa (bath salts, loofah, lotion), garden (mini terrarium or herbs), tea time (tea bags, honey, lemon, cookies), java jar (coffee, flavored syrups or Bailey's, chocolates), sewing stuff (fabric, thread, needles, pattern), candle (decorate your jar), potpourri (simmering or dry). If that isn't enough to get your ideas going, check Pinterest! Bring your unwrapped jar to the Intra Guild table before the meeting—we want to see what you've brought! You will be given a number when you drop off your jar; return at the break to choose your gift (in number order).

We've had a lot of interest for the color challenge. Hopefully everyone remembered to take their BEHR paint color card to ROAD to shop! It isn't too late to join the fun. Choose a paint card at the Board meeting, our quilt show (find Julie in Entrance), or at Guild meetings. Finished quilts will be due at the August meeting for voting. Paint Chip Color Challenge details can be found on the website.

Looking forward to seeing you all at the show and at Guild!
