Volume XXXVIII, No. 2, Established 1979

August Meeting: August 16

August 2016

President's Corner - Donna Bowker and Alex Tsubota

Whew! It's August, and it's hot! Do you sew when it's hot? Well, if you would like to sew while you're cool, come join a special "Sweatshop" in air-conditioned comfort at AAA Sewing and Fabric on Wednesday, August 17, 10 am-5 pm. Help assemble Comfort quilts, and enjoy visiting with new and current friends. (See what I did there? I didn't say "old" friends.) Bring $5 to defray costs.

Although there was no Guild meeting in July, a group of about 50 members enjoyed a great trip to Hoffman Fabrics. There was lots of fascinating information, previews of coming fabric attractions, a shopping opportunity, and a generous bundle of scraps for each person.

The guild received a heartfelt letter of thanks from CASA for our donation of $472.50 to be used for books for children. Talk to Julie Maas, Nadine Kirk, or Pam Overton at the Community Services table if you want to know more about CASA.

Be sure to look over the rest of the newsletter for upcoming Guild activities, speakers and workshops, and the Intra-Guild surprise!

Other events in August:

- Los Angeles Quilt Show at Crafted at the Port - August 13 & 14. Purchase tickets (good for both days) online for $10 by 8/12, or $15 at the door. www.laquiltshow.com
- If you are near San Diego this month, check out the Quilts and Color from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston exhibit at the San Diego Museum of Art, through September 5. More details at www.SDMART.org

See you August 16!

Programs / Workshops - Gina Shankle & Stephania Bommarito

August is already here (can you believe it?!!) and we're starting off the New Guild Year with a bang! Detailed information regarding the spectacular speakers and workshops we have coming up over the next several months is provided below. Please take a few minutes to check them out and find a workshop(s) that fascinates you. We've also been working on the Saturday Sit-Ins that have been mentioned at several Guild meetings. The Planning Committee is actively working on the details for these skill building events and additional details will be provided shortly. Hint – the first workshop will help all of us tackle the first installment of the Intra-Guild Row by Row quilt with ease. It's going to be an absolutely amazing year and we look forward to helping everyone grow their quilting skills through our lectures, workshops and Saturday Sit-Ins!

➤ Just a reminder that, although our workshops are usually held at AAA Fabric & Sewing Center in Lomita from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., the August workshop will be held at Ascension Lutheran Church, 17910 Prairie Avenue in Torrance. When you sign up for workshops, you can pay for them either by cash, check or credit card (Visa or MasterCard only) and we recommend you sign up early as workshops are filling up quickly. Registration is currently open for all of this year's classes, so don't miss out on taking the classes you want. Please contact Stephania Bommarito (310-503-7989, quiltwizard1024@gmail.com) if you are interested in attending any, several or all of the workshop(s). Detailed information for all of the upcoming workshops is available on the SBQG website.

◆◆◆ Upcoming Speakers and Workshops

► Dinner with the Speaker. All guild members are invited to join us for dinner with the speaker at 4:45 pm on the night of our guild meetings. We meet at Good Stuff restaurant located at Ave I and PCH in the beginning of the Hollywood Rivera in south Redondo Beach. Please let us know if you do plan on joining us so we can reserve ample seating.

► August 16, 2016 – Suzi Parron – Barn Quilts and the American Quilt Trail Movement

Suzi Parron stumbled across her first barn quilt in 2008 and immediately looked for a book with more information on barn quilts. When she found that none existed, she decided to write one herself, which has since evolved into a second book. Suzi's talk will take you on a journey along the quilt trail, beginning with the very first barn quilt which stemmed from Donna Sue Groves and her wish to honor her mother's quilting art. The presentation features over one hundred stunning photographs of barn quilts, some of which rival cloth quilts in their intricacy. You will hear stories of individuals who have painted quilt blocks to honor loved ones or their local culture, along with a few humorous anecdotes. The presentation is both informative and entertaining as we explore the way in which our quilting heritage takes on new meaning as this movement continues to expand.

► August 17, 2016 Workshop – Suzi Parron – Barn Quilt Painting

Join the barn quilt movement by creating your own painted quilt block! In this workshop you will begin with a pre-primed board and go through each step – drafting, taping, and painting – with careful attention to detail. At the end of the workshop you will leave with a 24" by 24" finished quilt block – or with one last color (which will be provided) to add at home – that will be ready for Show and Tell at your next guild meeting! This is a 4-hour workshop and Suzi will provide most of the supplies.

NOTE: There are only two seats left in this class, so please call Stephania as soon as possible to reserve your space.

► Please take a few minutes to check out Suzi Parron's website (<http://www.barnquiltinfo.com>) to learn more about her amazing journey and check out Pinterest for numerous examples of painted Barn Quilts.

► September 20, 2016 – Heidi Stagno – How Do I Quilt That Quilt???

The quilt top is done now what? Deciding what to quilt and where to quilt it is more than half the battle. Heidi has quilted over 3,000 quilts. She will give insight into how she chooses quilting designs and thread color while enhancing the piecing and applique, and how to select appropriate designs for the intended use of the quilt. Attendees should bring quilts to show and discuss options for quilting (although we may not be able to look at all of the quilts based on time constraints), and they will learn how to preview quilting designs before stitching them out. In her presentation, Heidi will also discuss how to quilt samplers and block of the month quilts.

► September 21, 2016 Workshop – Heidi Stagno – Beyond the Basics, Free Motion Background Fills

Okay, enough stippling. I want to quilt something fantastic! Background fills are one of the best ways of taking your quilt from okay to WOW!!! Heidi will show you how to "read" any free-motion quilting design and quilt it right onto your quilt. No marking or transferring designs required. See It, Stitch It! With her innovative technique – Element, Rotate, Repeat and Travel – she will have you quilting any design you want by the end of the day.

► Additional information regarding Heidi Stagno and her amazing work can be found on her website (<http://www.quiltingwithheidi.com>).

► October 18, 2016 – Laura Fraga – The Phenomenon of the Dear Jane Quilt

Dear Jane is a quilt that Jane A. Stickle completed in 1863 during the Civil War. Brenda Papadakis discovered it at the Bennington Museum in Vermont and introduced it to the world in 1996 (www.dearjane.com). Laura has been a Janiac (rhymes with maniac, you get the picture) since 2000. To date she has completed five (5) Dear Jane quilts of different sizes and helped numerous other quilters with their Dear Jane journeys. In her presentation, Laura will share her insights into the Dear Jane Phenomenon with us. Why are quilters fascinated with this Civil War quilt made by Jane Stickle? Who was she? What are Janiacs around the world working on?

► October 19, 2016 Workshop – Laura Fraga – Journey with Dear Jane

Just like Jane A. Stickle did during the Civil War era, learn where and how to start your Dear Jane Journey. Jane's sampler quilt is comprised of 225 square 5-inch blocks, each one different. Her quilt was non-traditional, creative, and innovative not only in the originality of the design but also in its composition from the smallest shape to the larger blocks and triangles. In this workshop you will make several Dear Jane blocks as you learn accurate machine and paper piecing skills while also learning several quick cut techniques.

► Additional information regarding Laura and her impressive work can be found at <http://www.laurafragaquilts.com>.

Quilt Show - Julie Limbach-Jones

“World of Color” February 18-19, 2017

I hope many of you will go to the LA Quilt Show at Crafted where our 2017 Opportunity Quilt will be on display. If you don't get a chance to see it there, we will have it at the Guild meeting. Opportunity Quilt and Sewing Machine raffle tickets and publicity materials will be available for you to start selling and letting your friends know about the show. Raffle Basket donations are being collected, beginning in August.

How else can you help with our show? If you are on Facebook, be sure to “like” our Quilt Show page to help us get the word out. Sign up to help sell tickets as the Opportunity Quilt makes its rounds. Be working on your quilts to enter in the show--it would be wonderful if we had an entry for EVERY guild member! Staffing sign-ups and Acquisitions will be starting in September.

Intra-Guild - Julie Limbach-Jones and Rain Burch

This year Intra-Guild is headed To the Beach! We are excited to introduce a yearlong row-by-row project this month. There will be seven themed row ideas presented over the 10 month year: August—Ocean Floor, September—Underwater, November—Surface, January—Beach, February—Distance, April--Sky, May—Extras. We've done some research on available free patterns and created some ourselves. Use the patterns to make individual blocks or full rows. We'll have samples of ideas at each Guild meeting to inspire you. We'd like to thank Nadine Kirk for committing time to meet with us to help with the design and share some of her patterns and embellishment ideas for the rows on this new project.

Drawings for a participation prize will be held at the September, November, January, February, April, May, and June Guild meetings. Bring anything completed for the To the Beach project to the Intra-Guild table to show (whether it is one block or a whole row) to be entered in the drawings.

And don't forget, we'll be wrapping up last year's Paint Chip Color Challenge at this October's Guild meeting (deadline was extended!). We can't wait to see everyone's creativity on display for the voting!

Membership - Pat Bryan and Marie Cortez

IT'S MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL TIME . . .

Membership renewals are due September 1 and should be received by the close of the September meeting. A membership application is included in this newsletter, is available on our website, and will be available at the membership table. Remember, we can now accept VISA/Mastercard but ONLY in person at the membership table. Absolute final date is November 1 to be included in the Membership Directory and avoid a late charge.

We strongly encourage you to receive your newsletter by email. It's easy to access - you can just click on a link in the message you receive each month.

We look forward to greeting everyone at the August 16 meeting.

Hospitality - Andrea Mc Cowan

If your last name begins with U, V, W, X, Y, Z, A or B, please bring a snack to share. Thank you.

Library - Joanne Stine

Christmas in August?? Get a jumpstart on your Holiday brainstorming! Come to the Library table at the Guild meeting in August, and look over the project and quilt ideas for the upcoming Fall/Winter Holidays. Our new acquisitions have become hot items for checkout! Stop by the Library table and see which ones are available:

We received thanks and appreciation from the Torrance Public Library System, the Redondo Beach Public Library System, and the Friends of Lomita Library for the donations made by SBQG from funds collected during our Library Book sales. Many thanks to all whose purchases made these donations possible. A generous donation was also made to CASA.

As usual, bring your $$ for your chance to win a raffle prize. All proceeds are reinvested in our guild library. Please return all library books to the August meeting.

Parliamentarian - Susan Salazar

Hello Everyone

We are looking forward to the installation of our new Board officers for 2016-2017. So exciting!!! Perhaps you will start thinking about joining the board next year... You are so welcome to participate!

Sunshine

Mark Yarrow, husband of guild member Karen Yarrow, won fourth place for a quilt he entered in the recent Momen+ contest. Congratulations!

Patchwork Star

Marie Cortez, is our wonderful patchwork star this month. Please join us at the August meeting to learn more about this gal and her quilts.

Travel - Joann Kennelly

Quiltfest Oasis in Palm Springs is on October 8th, 2016. Need a day of inspiration and shopping? Then, join the guild on a trip to Palm Springs on Saturday, October 8th from 8:00 am to 6:00 pm. Cost is $55 and includes transportation and entrance to the show. And snacks on the bus!) ## Community Services - Pam Overton

Community Service is off to a great start in our new guild year! Many thanks to AAA Sewing and Fabric for allowing us to use their classroom in July for the first-ever daytime sweatshop. We had a nice turnout with a number of new faces joining the team.

They have also offered their classroom for a full day sweatshop on August 17. Join us from 10:00 to 5:00 or for any part of the day. Bring your sewing machine, scissors and a chopstick to help sew, trim and turn comfort quilts. As we did in July, we ask that you pay $5 per person to help offset costs for the use of the classroom. AAA, though, has generously offered to waive that fee if you shop and spend at least $10. That's not hard to do. Everyone needs thread and they seem to have new fabric coming in daily! Please contact Mary Shadbourne or Pam Overton to let us know you can help.

We look forward to seeing your Read Me a Quilts and Wounded Warrior quilts as you turn them in at the meeting. We always need helpers to hold the quilts. If we approach you with clipboard in hand, please say yes!

Read Me a Quilt - Julie Maas

Lauri Halderman wrote this email to the guild:

Thank you again for the quilts from the South Bay Quilter's Guild. The Star Wars themed quilt was a huge hit amongst staff. One child will be very happy. I am following up on the special request quilt. It will be for a 14-year-old boy, who loves basketball and is on the autism spectrum. Please let me know if one of your fellow quilters would be willing to make such a quilt. Thank you.

Please volunteer to do this special quilt. It should not be terribly difficult to find a book about basketball. If you can make this quilt, please let me know. If we get excess quilts on this topic, they will be given to the regular Read Me a Quilt project. Since this is going to a teenage boy, please make this a larger quilt that could be used on his bed and/or wrapped in.

I look forward to seeing the quilts that you are working on now. It is not too early to plan a quilt that can be given to a child for a Christmas present. Thank you ladies for all of the hard work you have put into your quilts for the CASA children!

The Comfort Project - Mary Shadbourne

Here are totals for items donated through the Comfort Project during the last year, July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016:

- 566 quilts
- 23 pillowcases
- 174.5 pounds of toiletries
- 104 holiday stockings and mittens

On Wednesday, July 20, Pam Overton promoted and coordinated our first ever Sew-in at AAA. Thirteen members brought their machines and we succeeded in assembling about thirty-five comfort quilt tops. This event will be followed by a daytime sweatshop, also at AAA scheduled for Wednesday, August 17. You will receive a separate email with pertinent information as the date nears.

Wounded Warriors - Arlene Zobrist

Quilts for Wounded Warriors

Arlene Zobrist 310-543-5302

We received 6 more quilts for wounded warriors in July, so our guild's "dark" month still brought in quilts. In addition to these, I also received calls from two local quilters saying they have more in process. It's gratifying to see the continuing support for our troops in harm's way, from our guild members and from other quilters who want to help.

Thanks go to Dottie Daybell for all the excellent research she does. She found the (free) pattern for this quilt and also for several others that are adaptable for our warrior quilts, and always offers good ideas for using the patterns. I keep these on file, so please let me know if you would like to see or use them. Your help is appreciated, Dottie!

Requirements:

Size: 48" by 78" (stretcher size)

All cotton (including batting, 80/20 acceptable)

Appropriate patriotic theme/design

Optional: Pillowcase, 20"x30", coordinating fabric

Remember to bring:

- Your badge
- Your donation to the St. Andrews Pantry (fruit and meat canned goods)
- Your Read Me a Quilt and/or Wounded Warrior Quilt donations
- Show and Tell
- Finished Comfort Quilt tops or tied quilts

South Bay Quilters Guild is very active in Community Services projects. In addition to the above dues, you may make an optional charitable donation for Community Services, which is tax deductible. If you choose to do so, please indicate the amount $_____. You will receive a donation receipt. Thank you!

SBQG is an all-volunteer charitable organization. In support of our charitable goals we hope that you will be able to attend meetings, participate in our work and activities according to your interests, and support the quilt show with at least 3 hours of your time. Check the by-laws for complete information. We value your membership and understand there may be exceptional circumstances. Please contact Pat Bryan or Marie Cortez if you have questions or feel you cannot fully meet these requirements.
